A Note from the Director

Dear CAAS Community,

Great things continue to happen in the Center for African American Studies! Most importantly, I recently received approval from the Provost's Office to hire two full-time, non-tenure-track faculty members with joint appointments. One position will be split with the School of Social Work (SSW), and one will be split with the Department of Criminology and Criminal Justice in the College of Liberal Arts (CoLA). These new hires will be CAAS' first full-time faculty members! A special thanks goes out to Dean Elisabeth Cawthon of CoLA and Dean Scott Ryan of SSW for helping to make this happen!

Also, please check out CAAS' new website (<https://www.uta.edu/caas/>), and there have been major updates to the curriculum for the minor in African American Studies! Lastly, I served as a featured speaker for a presidential panel on "Race, Religion, and Politics" at the annual meeting of the Society for the Scientific Study of Religion. It was an honor to be part of the discussion on how the Black Church will impact the 2020 presidential election!

This issue of Synergy provides an overview of these, as well as many other great things that have happened in CAAS over the past few months. Thanks for your support!

DR. JASON E. SHELTON

Black Maverick Welcome Fall 2019

As always, Black Maverick Welcome was a major success! CAAS helped to welcome hundreds of African American students back to campus at the beginning of the Fall 2019 semester!

DJ Swerve (my former student, and UTA alum) played new and classic hits, while Greeks strolled in front of the Swift Center. Everyone ate BBQ, made new friends, and caught up with folks they had not seen since Spring. What great way to begin the academic year!

Volunteer Graduate Intern Fall 2019

Junichi Lockett served as a volunteer graduate intern in CAAS! He took the initiative in contacting Dr. Shelton to see if he could help out. His goal was to learn more about Black Studies programs.

Junichi is currently working on his dissertation in UTA's College of Education, and plans to build a career studying the positive role that African American Studies plays in impacting students' academic performance.

Empowering All Generations Fall 2019

Once again, CAAS had the privileged of hosting Lockheed Martin's Joint Midwest Regional Conference. This year's theme was "Empowering All Generations: Breaking the Glass Ceiling." It was co-sponsored by various groups including the African American Council for Excellence (AAACE), Able and Allies, the LGBT Professional Network, Women's Impact Network (WIN), Professional Asian American Network (PAAN), Hispanic Organization for Leadership and Awareness (HOLA), Military Veterans, and Allies for Inclusion (AFI).

Several high-ranking leaders from across the US attending this year's conference, which took place in UTA's new SEIR Building and the UTA Library. The morning keynote was delivered by Raina Washington, VP of Diversity and Inclusion. The afternoon keynote was offered by Kim Cummings, Assistant VP of Human Resources at BNSF Railway.

Alpha Phi Alpha Golf Tournament Fall 2019

Dr. Shelton recruited a team to play in the Arlington chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity's Annual Golf Tournament. This fundraiser benefits the Alpha Ambassador's Club, which aims to empower young men with social and professional skills needed to be successful in college!

CAAS sponsored the 1st hole on the golf course!

October Power Hour Lecture Series

THE CENTER FOR AFRICAN AMERICAN STUDIES PRESENTS A POWER HOUR EVENT:

PRIORITIZING PROMISE!

WITH TIA COLE

I was never supposed to be here and yet I am.
I almost died TWICE.

Reaching your fullest potential and helping someone meet theirs is more of an art than a science. In this world with so many distractions and distortions, it is so important for us to prioritize the promise we all have inside. Let's talk about how!

A WORKSHOP FOR LEARNING HOW TO PRIORITIZE TO REACH YOUR POTENTIAL

OCTOBER 2, 2019
12:00-1:00 PM
UC BLUEBONNET
REFRESHMENTS WILL BE SERVED

Tia Cole was CAAS' featured speaker in October. She delivered a powerful message on student development! Ms. Cole was the optimal choice for this subject because she's a professor at Tarrant County College's South Campus, AND she owns her own business—The Cole Lab—which specializes in preparing students for academic and professional success.

November Power Hour Lecture Series

In November, Dr. Pamela Fox spoke on past and present inequalities facing African Americans. Her presentation was titled: “Sankofa: Going Back and Getting It - A Historical and Comparative Analysis Fifty Years after the Assassination of The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and after the Quadricentennial of African Enslavement in the United States.”

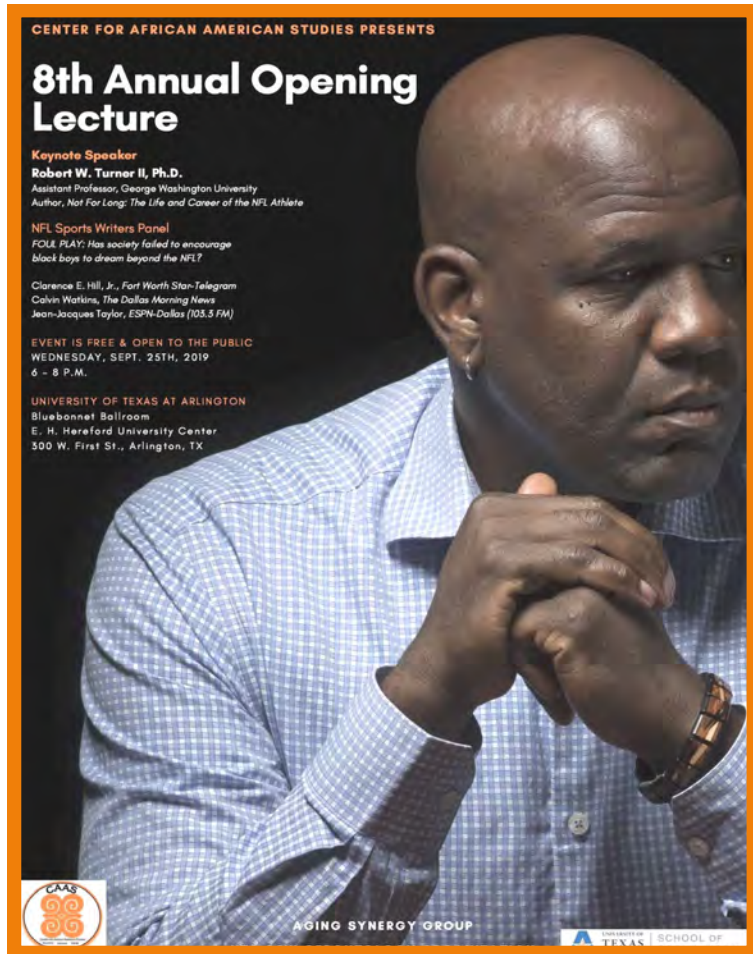

Dr. Fox is an Assistant Professor in Practice in the School of Social Work. She is also a licensed clinical social worker, ordained minister (retired) in the United Church of Christ; and served as a Commander (retired) in the U.S. Navy Reserves.

She shared many fascinating insights!

FORMER NFL PLAYER AND ASSISTANT PROFESSOR
ROBERT W. TURNER II, PHD

Robert W. Turner II, PhD is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Clinical Research and Leadership. His book manuscript, Not For Long: The Life and Career of the NFL Athlete (Oxford University Press, August 2018) is an ethnographic project that offers a descriptive analysis of the social world of NFL athletes based on the author's personal experience as a former professional football player, interviews with current and former players.

This event was co-sponsored by the School of Social Work (SSW) and two groups within SSW: the Aging Synergy Group and the Gerontology Organization.

Special 'Thank You's' go out to Valerie Hill of SSW. She organized the panel of sportswriters! Also, Dr. Ryon Cobb of SSW helped bring Dr. Turner to campus. They are friends and colleagues!

Give a Gift

Established in August 2012, the Center for African American Studies (CAAS) at the University of Texas at Arlington aims to cultivate an exceptional transdisciplinary experience through teaching, civic engagement, and community-based research focused on the diverse contextual conditions of Blacks in America and society at large. Our purpose is to foster the development of student, faculty, and community capacity to create progressive solutions that address social problems.

Endowed funding is being sought to support:

- ◆ Lectures, events, and conferences
- ◆ Student enrichment initiatives
- ◆ Undergraduate and graduate scholarships
- ◆ Faculty and student community-based research

To Give a Gift to CAAS:

1. Go to: <https://giving.uta.edu/Give>
